1 About the ECCC

The European Cybersecurity Industrial, Technology and Research Competence Centre (hereafter “ECCC” or “Centre”) was established by Regulation (EU) 2021/ 887¹. In accordance with the article 3 of that Regulation, the mission of the Centre, and the related Network of National Coordination Centres, is to:

- Strengthen leadership and strategic autonomy of the European Union (“EU” or “the Union”) in the area of cybersecurity by retaining and developing the EU’s research, academic, societal, technological and industrial cybersecurity capacities and capabilities necessary to enhance trust and security in the Digital Single Market, including by retaining and developing the confidentiality, integrity and accessibility of data.
- Support EU technological capacities, capabilities and skills in relation to the resilience and reliability of the infrastructure of network and information systems, including critical infrastructure and commonly used hardware and software in the Union.
- Increase the global competitiveness of the Union's cybersecurity industry, ensure high cybersecurity standards throughout the Union and turn cybersecurity into a competitive advantage for other Union industries.
- Undertake these tasks in collaboration with the European Union Agency for Cybersecurity (ENISA) and the Cybersecurity Competence Community, as appropriate.
- In accordance with the legislative acts establishing the relevant programmes, in particular Horizon Europe and the Digital Europe Programme, use relevant Union financial resources in such a way as to contribute to the mission mentioned above.

The ECCC consists of about 40 staff members and manages an annual budget of approximately EUR 200 million per year.

The Centre is in Bucharest, Romania and English is the language used to exercise its tasks. For more information, please visit the European Cybersecurity Competence Centre and Network website.

¹ Regulation (EU) 2021/887 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 May 2021 establishing the European Cybersecurity Industrial, Technology and Research Competence Centre and the Network of National Coordination Centres (europa.eu) OJ L 202, 8.6.2021, p. 1-31

2 About the job

Unlock your potential as the Senior Programme Manager at the European Cybersecurity Competence Centre (ECCC). This call aims to establish a talent pool for a key role driving the execution of large-scale ICT initiatives that strengthen Europe's cybersecurity ecosystem.

As Senior Programme Manager, you will lead and oversee complex projects, ensuring robust governance, financial control, and effective coordination across multidisciplinary teams. You will provide strategic and technical input to public procurement processes, support flagship initiatives such as the Cyber Hubs and PQC testing infrastructure and contribute to cybersecurity programmes aligned with EU priorities.

You will also help enhance the visibility and impact of ECCC programmes, foster collaboration through engagement with partners such as the European Commission, ENISA, and National Coordination Centres, and deliver high-value trainings and stakeholder events. Through your leadership, you will shape the future direction and success of the ECCC.

Duties and responsibilities

Your responsibilities will encompass a broad range of tasks, including but not limited to:

Project Management

- Oversee all aspects of project delivery, including planning, contractual and financial obligations, governance, reporting, and risk management — while coordinating projects throughout preparation and implementation.
- Establish and implement effective project management tools and methodologies to ensure the successful planning and execution of large-scale ICT projects.

Technical advisory and procurement support

- Provide technical and strategic input to public procurement procedures, including the review of technical specifications and advisory support for major ECCC initiatives (i.e. Cyber Hubs, PQC testing infrastructure), ensuring alignment with programme objectives, technological developments and organisational priorities.

Strategic programming and policy support

- Contribute, as requested, to the preparation and development of Work Programmes and Call Documents under the Digital Europe Programme (DEP), ensuring alignment with EU cybersecurity priorities and emerging technological trends.

Stakeholder engagement and outreach

- Contribute to the roll out and further development of the ATLAS platform to enhance awareness and visibility of ECCC programmes, facilitating the exchange of best practices and enable matchmaking activities.
- Foster effective relationship with key stakeholders, including the Network of National Coordination Centers, the European Commission, ENISA, EU institutions and the Cybersecurity Community.
- Provide technical and strategic input to the design and delivery of workshops, expert briefings, and stakeholder meetings related to ECCC strategic initiatives, ensuring high-quality content aligned with programme objectives and policy priorities

The selected candidate may be required to undertake additional responsibilities as directed by their line manager, adapting to the evolving needs and structure of the ECCC.

3 Eligibility and selection criteria

3.1 Eligibility criteria

To be eligible, you need to meet the following formal criteria, which need to be fulfilled by the deadline for applications:

General Conditions

- Have the nationality of one of the EU Member States;
- Produce the appropriate character references;²

Well-being - Our comprehensive programme prioritises a healthy work-life balance, including amongst other reimbursements for fitness activities.

Learning - We provide access to a wide range of training programmes, learning resources and opportunities to expose yourself in other areas.

Growth - This position provides an opportunity to gain experience at a leading EU institution, furthering your professional development.

Flexible Work Arrangement - With our hybrid working arrangements, staff members can enjoy a healthy balance between teleworking and office presence.

Schooling - The ECCC offers a comprehensive schooling policy for staff members and their dependent children attending educational institutions in Bucharest.

5 Selection and appointment procedure

5.1.1 Conditions of employment

The selected candidate will be engaged by the Appointing Authority from the established talent pool (reserve list).

The successful candidate will be appointed by the Appointing Authority of the ECCC in Function Group AD, Grade 7, in the first or second step, depending on the length of professional experience, pursuant to Article 2(f) of the Conditions of Employment of 8

The remuneration of a staff member consists of a basic salary (currently EUR 7.876,27 EURO for step 1) which will be weighed by the correction coefficient (72.9%). The staff member may be entitled to various allowances, in particular to an expatriation (16 % of basic gross salary) or to a foreign residence allowance (4 % of basic gross salary) – depending on its particular situation, annual trip allowances, and to family allowances (depending on its personal situation) such as household allowance, dependent child allowance, pre-school allowance, education allowance.

Only applicable to internal (ECCC) candidates and to candidates from other EU institutions/bodies/agencies: The post is published internally for Temporary Staff 2(f) in a function group and grade corresponding to the bracket [AD 5 – AD 7] on the closing date for application and on the day of filling the post.

5.1.2 Selection and assessment of the applications

- For each selection process, a Selection Committee is nominated by the Executive Director of the ECCC.
- Each application is checked to verify whether the candidate meets the eligibility criteria.
- The Selection Committee, having regard to the vacancy notice, is evaluating all eligible applications.
- The quality of the information provided by the candidate in their application is of utmost importance. Candidates are requested to support their application with adequate, concise examples of their work experience (including traineeships, voluntary work, etc), and qualification, especially if not directly addressed in the duties listed in the application under professional experience. Certain selection criteria may be assessed jointly, and some criteria may be assessed in two or more stages of the selection procedure;

- Once the list of the most qualified candidates is determined, a preliminary assessment may take place (e.g., a pre-recorded video interview and/or a remote written test) prior to the shortlist phase;
- In the shortlist phase consisting of a shortlist interview which may be complemented by a written test, the Selection Committee scores the candidates in accordance with the selection criteria. Candidates may also be required to prepare a presentation on a topic to be presented during the shortlist phase, which would be evaluated as part of the shortlist interview;
- In order to be included in the reserve list, candidates must receive at least 60% of the maximum scores in the shortlist phase;
- After the shortlist phase, the Selection Committee establishes a non-ranked list of the most qualified candidates to be included in a reserve list and proposes it to the Appointing Authority;
- The Appointing Authority may choose from the reserve list a candidate for the post;
- Candidates included in the reserve list may be contacted to be engaged for the same or similar post depending on the ECCC's needs and budgetary situation;
- All shortlisted candidates will be informed whether or not they have been included in the reserve list. Candidates should note that inclusion in a reserve list does not guarantee engagement.

5.1.3 Reserve list

On the basis of the above procedure, the Selection Committee will establish a reserve list which can be used to fill also other positions within the ECCC. The reserve list will be valid until 31/12/2028 and may be extended at the discretion of the of the Appointing Authority. Candidates should note that inclusion on the reserve list does not guarantee recruitment, as this will be based on availability of posts and budget.

If you are included in the reserve list of suitable candidates for this selection procedure, your personal data may be shared - subject to your explicit consent - with other EU Agencies or Joint Undertakings⁵ seeking to fill similar positions. This will allow you to be considered for additional job opportunities across multiple EU Agencies and Joint Undertakings, only if needed in the future. Your explicit consent will be sought each time another EU Agency or Joint Undertaking requests access to the reserve list of suitable candidates

Security clearance

The selected candidate should be in the position to obtain a valid security clearance certificate from his/her national security authority. A personal security clearance is an administrative decision following completion of a security screening conducted by the individual's competent national security authority in accordance with applicable national security laws and regulations and certifying that an individual may be allowed to access classified information up to a specified level. (Note that the necessary procedure for obtaining a security clearance can be initiated on request of the employer only, and not by the individual candidate).

Independence and declaration of interest

The successful candidate will be required to make a declaration of commitment to act independently in the ECCC's best interest and to make a declaration in relation to interests which might be considered prejudicial to her/his independence.

⁵ Participating Agencies and Joint Undertakings under the Memorandum of Understanding on sharing reserve lists include: the European Cybersecurity Competence Centre (ECCC), the European High Performance Computing Joint Undertaking (EuroHPC JU), the Agency for the Cooperation of Energy Regulators (ACER), the Chips Joint Undertaking (Chips JU), the Authority for Anti-Money Laundering and Countering the Financing of Terrorism (AMLA), the European Centre for the Development of Vocational Training (Cedefop), the European Banking Authority (EBA), the Clean Aviation Joint Undertaking (CA JU), and the European Union Agency for Railways (ERA).

Romania

The complaint must be lodged within three (3) months. The time limit for initiating this type of procedure starts from the time the candidate is notified of the act adversely affecting them.

8 Protection of your personal data

The personal information that ECCC requests from applicants will be processed in line with Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 and Decision No 1247/2002/EC.

WHICH OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA DO WE PROCESS?

1.1. When you apply for a job (selection process), we process:

- Identity information you provide us with, such as your first name, last name, birthdate, preferences and interests.
- Contact details you provide us with, such as your e-mail address, postal address, country and (mobile) telephone number.

- Resume the information you provide us with, such as your employer, professional experience, education, skills and references.
- Results of the selection process
- Any other personal data you provide us with to support your job application or to allow the verification of the eligibility and selection criteria laid down in the vacancy notice.

1.2. For the recruitment process, we process:

- All the information from the selection process mentioned above.
- Documents verifying nationality.
- Family situation.
- Documents verifying appropriate character references (in accordance with Article 12(2) and 82(3) of CEOS);
- Document sent from the Commission Medical Service indicating that the selected candidate is physically fit or not to perform the job;
- PMO forms to allow the establishment of the recruited staff's entitlements under the Staff Regulation and CEOS.
- Originals of the extracts of criminal record/attestation of good behavior.
- Any other personal data you provide us with.

1.3. We receive most of your personal data directly from you, but it may happen that our HR department includes additional information in your job application or that we receive information from a recruitment agency. In such case, the agency is responsible for providing you with the information in this Applicants' Privacy Policy. Also, we advise you to consult the privacy policy of the recruitment agency.

1.4. We do not intend to process sensitive personal data about you, such as information revealing your racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious and philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, genetic data, biometric data for the purpose of unique identification, data concerning health, sex life or sexual orientation. If such information is necessary for your job application, we will ask for your consent separately. If you nevertheless provide us with such information on your own initiative, we will derive your explicit, freely given, specific, informed and unambiguous consent to the processing of this data. Personal data concerning health (medical data) are processed by the Medical Service of the European Commission. Candidates failing to provide compulsory data as requested in the vacancy notice will be excluded from the selection process.

FOR WHAT PURPOSES DO WE PROCESS YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

- 1.5. We process your personal data for selection and recruitment purposes so that you are able to apply for a job with us at this moment or in the near future, as well as to keep track of your details in this context and to follow up on your application. We rely on your consent for this processing activity. We also rely on Article 2(a) and (f), 3(a), 12, 82 and 86 of CEOS. If special categories of personal data are processed, we may rely on the derogation explicit consent (Art. 10(2)(a) of Regulation (EU)2018/1725) or Article 137(3) of the Financial Regulation (for criminal records).

TO WHOM DO WE SEND YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

- 1.6. We may share your personal data with third parties in order to process your personal data for the purposes outlined above. Third parties are only allowed to process your personal data on our behalf and upon our explicit written instruction. We also warrant that all those third parties are selected with due care and are committed to observing the safety and integrity of your personal data.
- 1.7. We may be legally obliged to share your personal data with competent law enforcement agents or representatives, judicial authorities, governmental agencies or bodies.
- 1.8. We do not send your personal data in an identifiable manner to any third party other than the ones mentioned without your explicit consent to do so. However, we may send anonymised data to other organisations that may use that data for improving our job application process.

WHERE DO WE PROCESS YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

- 1.9. We process your personal data within the European Economic Area (EEA).

WHAT QUALITY ASSURANCES DO WE COMPLY WITH?

- 1.10. We do our utmost best to process only those personal data which are necessary to achieve the purposes above.

- 1.11. Your personal data are only processed for as long as needed to achieve the purposes listed above or up until such time when you withdraw your consent for processing them. If you are recruited, your personal data are kept for 10 years after termination of employment or the last pension payment. If you are placed on the reserve list and not recruited the retention period for your data will be determined in terms of the validity and the actual extension of the respective reserve list. If you are not recruited, your personal data is kept for 2 years following the completion of the recruitment process .
- 1.12. We will take appropriate technical and organisational measures to keep your personal data safe from unauthorised access or theft as well as accidental loss tampering or destruction. Access by our personnel or third parties' personnel will only be on a need-to-know basis and be subject to confidentiality obligations. You understand, however, that safety and security are best efforts obligations which can never be guaranteed.

WHAT ARE YOUR RIGHTS?

- 1.13. You have the right to request access to all personal data processed by us pertaining to you.
- 1.14. You have the right to rectification, i.e. to ask if any personal data pertaining to you that are inaccurate, are corrected.
- 1.15. You have the right to withdraw your earlier given consent for processing your personal data.
- 1.16. You have the right to erasure, i.e., to request that personal data pertaining to you be deleted if these data are no longer required in the light of the purposes outlined in Article 3 above or if you withdraw your consent for processing them.
- 1.17. You have the right to restriction instead of deletion, i.e. to request that we limit the processing of your personal data.
- 1.18. You have the right to object to the processing of personal data if the processing by us is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest, unless we demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds which override your interests, rights and freedoms or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

- 1.19. You have the right to data portability, i.e. to receive from us in a structured, commonly- used and machine-readable format all personal data you have provided to us if the processing is based on your consent or a contract with you and the processing is carried out by automated means.
- 1.20. If you wish to submit a request to exercise one or more of the rights listed above, you can contact us by sending an e-mail to recruitments@eccc.europa.eu. An e-mail requesting to exercise a right will not be construed as consent with the processing of your personal data beyond what is required for handling your request. Such request should meet the following conditions:
- State clearly which right you wish to exercise; and
 - Your request should be accompanied by a digitally scanned copy of your valid identity card proving your identity.

We will promptly inform you of having received your request. If the request meets the conditions above and proves valid, we will honour it as soon as reasonably possible and at the latest thirty (30) days after having received your request.

If you have any queries concerning the processing of your personal data, you may address them to the Data Controller via recruitments@eccc.europa.eu

You may at any time consult the ECCC Data Protection Officer (data-protection@eccc.europa.eu)

If you remain unsatisfied with our response, you are free to file a complaint with the European Data Protection Supervisor (<https://edps.europa.eu>).
